

SAFETY GUIDANCE

Fluid Potency
17th – 18th October 2025

Your health and wellbeing are important to us, as is the safety of everyone attending the course.

If you're feeling unwell or have any symptoms of a respiratory illness, please let a member of the BioBasics Team know. If you believe attending could pose a risk to others, we kindly ask that you do not attend this event.

Please note that we cannot guarantee complete safety for individuals in clinically vulnerable categories. If this applies to you, we recommend assessing whether attendance is an appropriate personal risk.

Regular handwashing and sanitising are encouraged throughout the weekend.

We wish you a safe, healthy, and enjoyable course experience.
